Office of the
Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

Dated, Bangalore, 15th April 1905.

From,

F. E. C. Carr Esquire,
Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

To,

B. K. Venkatavaradaiengar Esquire,
Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith for the special sanction of Government copy of a Circular which I propose issuing directing all District Reserve Constables to appear always in uniform, to attend drill at least 3 times a week, & be changed regularly once in 3 months.

2. As previous Circulars on this subject from this office have been honored more in the breach than in the observance, I request that you will be so good as to move Government to have this order issued as a Government order, for the guidance of Deputy Commissioners, and other officers entitled to Police orderlies.

3. It is most essential that all District Reserves should be well disciplined, and regularly drilled, if they are to be of the slightest use for emergencies.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

F. E. Carr

CIRCULAR.

OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE

IN MYSORE.

Dated Bangalore 21st November 1891.

The following rules regarding the detailing of Police orderlies in the Districts are published for guidance.

Police Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents will be held personally responsible for the due observance of these rules and the correctness of the statement required in para 6.

1. Orderlies must be relieved every three months and they are under no cicumstances whatever to be employed on other than Police duties. The practice for instance of employing Police Constables to carry Dufters of Revenue Officers which is derogatory to the dignity that should attach to the Office of the Police-man should cease.

2. Orderlies should not except in cases of emergency be required to serve summonses and warrants.

3. Orderlies are never to be permitted to divest themselves of their Police dress.

4. The following is the scale of orderlies prescribed for Magistrates and Police Officers.

District Magistrates, one Duffedar and 3 Constables.

The District Magistrates of Bangalore and Mysore may be given one additional constable from the respective Towns.

Divisional Magistrates 2 constables.

Assistant and other Magistrates without Divisional charge. } 1 Constable.

Police Assistant Commissioners 5, of whom one may be Duffedar.

Inspectors 1

5. No orderlies will be detailed without orders of the Inspector General to Officers other than those named above and all application from other Officers must be made through the District Magistrate to whom Police Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents will submit any objection they may see fit.

6. Monthly statement in the accompanying form will be submitted
